For Immediate Release

Monroe, NC, October 18, 2002 – Corbin Russwin is pleased to introduce a new mortise cam (A06) for Corbin Russwin cylinders to retrofit Schlage® L9000 series locksets. This cam operates only those L9000 series locksets accepting a cloverleaf cam. This addition to the Corbin Russwin mortise cam offerings increases options for aftermarket applications allowing Corbin Russwin cylinders to be specified. This mortise cam is available for all conventional, interchangeable core, security and Pyramid mortise cylinders and housings.
